- 5:30pm Doors Open, Involvement Fair in Commons
- 6:00pm Principal's Welcome in Gym
- 6:30pm Classroom Visits Begin

Walk & Roll to School Day

Tyee celebrates "Walk & Roll to School Day" on Wednesday October 12. In partnership with City of Bellevue, Tyee wishes to promote a safer, more sustainable, and less stressful commute to school. Walking and Biking to school help to reduce traffic near schools, to learn safe walking and biking tips, get exercise, and have fun! We'll be handing out fun prizes at the bike racks and sidewalk entrances to school that day. If your student lives in walking distance, we encourage families join them in a healthy stroll to school!

October 1, 2022 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM at Bellevue Downtown Park

This year, Bellevue Schools Foundation is distributing $800,000 to all 30 schools in the Bellevue School District. Student support such as mental health, computer science, early learning, inclusive libraries, (and more!) wouldn't be available to over 18,000 students without the Foundation.Celebrate the new school year with us! Bring an email receipt of a donation from now until the event and be entered in a prize drawing. Show your BSF spirit at the Block Party with a donation of any amount!

Newport Robotics Group Demonstration

For ages 5-13. Come join the Newport Robotics Group at Newcastle Library this Saturday October 1 at 1-3 PM. Come learn more about FIRST Robotics, explore breadboards + circuitry, and drive NRG's robot. Hope to see you there!

The Extraordinary Power of a Resilient Mindset

Back by popular demand, ParentMap welcomes Sam Goldstein, Ph.D., and Robert B. Brooks, Ph.D.! In their 2021 ParentEd talk, they explored the seven essential human instincts powering tenacity, the key personality trait that prepares kids for lifelong happiness and success. This year, they will focus on resilience, the conditioned process of competent functioning in the face of duress or adversity.

During their Oct. 12 ParentEd talk, Goldstein and Brooks will share strategies parents can employ to nurture a resilient mindset and behaviors in themselves and in their children.
